EL PASO, TX – (March 7, 2013) –RV and camping enthusiasts are invited to say goodbye to winter and start thinking about summer adventures at the first RV show produced in El Paso in twelve years. The Progressive Insurance El Paso RV & Camping Show will be held this April 18 – 21, 2013, at the El Paso Convention Center. “We are excited to bring our RV show expertise and unique approach to the El Paso RV market,” says Vilma Fraguada, President – Consumer Shows, with GS Media & Events. “This is the perfect place for consumers to explore and compare 2013 RVs and get their questions answered directly from knowledgeable dealers and manufacturer representatives. Plus, it’s a great way to enjoy family time, attend education seminars on RVing, and start planning the family’s upcoming summer camping excursions.”

The Great American Duck Race of New Mexico will be running on a daily schedule, providing fun entertainment for families young and old. Robert and Kathy Duck, the Owners, have brought their racing ducks to many events throughout the country with huge success, including an appearance on “The Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson.”

Walter Cannon, of RV Safety, will present daily seminars for attendees providing information on many topics on RV safety and handling. His topics may include weight or tire safety, properly matching trucks and trailers/fifth-wheels, understanding your RV weight label, road use laws, RV driving, and what you need to know when you purchase your RV.
