

Yuma Lakes RV Resort

Recharge your batteries under the Arizona sun

Known as America's Lettuce Capital, with fields of green and red leaves painting the desert floor, Yuma is a vibrant community that attracts sun-seeking snowbirds to Arizona by the thousands. Coast to Coast members can set up camp on the edge of the city at Yuma Lakes RV Resort, one of six Coast to Coast affiliates in the Colorado River Adventures network.

Like its sister resorts, Yuma Lakes has an array of facilities, from its main clubhouse to its recreation center, laundry room, game room and store. Check out the full slate of activities in the clubhouse. It's easy to join in the fun here and just as easy to find a quiet spot to soak up the sun.

Yuma Lakes spreads out beside a 12-acre private lake that's perfect for paddling and fishing for bass. Get to know your RV neighbors while playing shuffleboard or bocce ball, cooling off in the outdoor pool and relaxing in the hot tub.

This 55-plus Coast Deluxe Resort provides full RV hookups and offers pull-through sites and big-rig access. Leashed pets are welcome, there's round-the-clock security, and Wi-Fi keep everyone in touch.

Yuma claims to have more sunshine than any other city on earth, so it's a natural destination for all kinds of outdoor activities, from four-wheel fun on the rolling sand dunes to watery ex-

LOCATION: Yuma, Arizona

RESORT TYPE: Coast Deluxe

SEASON: Open September 15 to May 14

WEBSITE: coloradoriveradventures.com

WOODALL FACILITIES:

WOODALL RECREATION:

ploits on the Colorado River. When the sun falls below the horizon, there's still plenty to do, including gaming at several nearby casinos. The area's population nearly doubles from January through March, so make reservations early for peak season stays.

A 20-minute drive takes you south of the border for colorful Mexican culture and affordable medications and health care. Yuma Lakes offers weekly shuttles to El Golfo Beach Resort, its sister property on Mexico's Sea of Cortez, an hour to the south.

